About the property

Rustic land for sale near Fataga

This rustic plot is located near the village of Fataga, in an area with direct sunlight throughout the day. It offers 1,200 square meters of land, ideal for planting various fruit trees or crops. The property currently includes 35 orange trees, 5 lemon trees, 1 avocado tree, as well as grapevines, apricot and kiwi plants. It is ideal for those seeking a natural environment with their own fruit production, where you can enjoy the countryside and agriculture just a few minutes from the south of the island.

The property includes two tool sheds, natural spring water, three 1,000-liter water tanks that are refilled weekly, and a solar panel. The land also has a topographic survey and the possibility to install water and electricity meters. Additionally, it has already been leveled and is accessible from a parking area where you can leave your car 100 metres from the property.

The plot has a title deed and is registered in the property registry.
